REV. STANTON ASSIGNED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

At the annual meeting of the California Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, held in San Diego recently, there was assigned by the Presiding Bishop, Ira D. Warner, a new pastor to the Central Church of Torrance.

Rev. Walter M. Stanton, just finishing a successful pastorate of nine years at the Riverside Evangelical United Brethren Church of Sacramento, will take up his residence at the parsonage at 1548 Marcelina Ave. and begin his ministry to the members of the local church on Sunday, June 28.

Western Style Church Service To Be Continued

The western style church services of the First Baptist Church of El Nido, at 4556 W. 182nd St., will continue Sunday evening at 7:30 with Rue Barclay, former stage, screen, and TV star, appearing to sing and play again.

Enthusiastic acceptance of the novel church services has been reported by Rev. Leland Pisel, pastor of the church.

Helping Barclay with the Sunday evening services will be the Christian Pioneers, and the minister, choir, and the congregation will carry out the western motif.

Rev. Pisel said members have been attending the services in boots, bonnets, plaids, and other western garb.

"Mr. Barclay has a tremendous testimony concerning the grace of God in his life," Rev. Pisel says. He reminds all that they are welcome to attend the services.
